Ambassador of Mongolia visits the Institute of National Remembrance

On 16 November 2026, a meeting was held at the headquarters of the Institute of National Remembrance in Warsaw between the Institute’s Deputy President, Dr Karol Polejowski, and the Ambassador of Mongolia, Oyundari Navaan-Yunden.

The meeting was also attended by Third Secretary Tselmen

Zagasbaldan; Marzena Kruk, Director of the IPN Archives; Dr Sebastian Pilarski, Director of the Historical Research Office; Adam Siwek, Director of the Office for Commemorating the Struggle and Martyrdom; and Dr Adam Pleskaczyński, Director of the National Education Office.

During the meeting, the participants discussed opportunities for cooperation in the areas of joint academic research, archival exchange, and educational initiatives. Plans were also discussed to install a commemorative plaque in Mongolia honouring the support provided by the Polish opposition, followed by Polish government experts, for Mongolia’s political transformation, particularly the drafting of the new Mongolian Constitution.

The Ambassador spoke about the history of persecution suffered by her family and expressed Mongolia’s willingness to establish an institution modelled on the IPN. The meeting was organised by the IPN’s Office of International Cooperation.

On 2 June 2026, an agreement was signed between the IPN and Mongolia’s State Commission for the Rehabilitation of Victims. The agreement covers joint historical research, archival cooperation, education, and the commemoration of victims of political persecution.
