Cooperation agreement between IPN and the Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes in Romania (IICCR)

On September 23, 2008, by the invitation of the Institute for the Investigation of Communist Crimes in Romania (Institutul de Investigare a Crimelor Comunismului în România - IICCR) in the premises of the Romanian Diplomatic Institute in Bucharest, a visit of the representatives of the Institute of National Remembrance, took place. During the meeting, the President of the IPN – dr. Janusz Kurtyka and the President of IICCR, dr. Marius Oprea, signed a mutual cooperation agreement between the two Institutes.

According to the agreement both sides concurred to:

- cooperation in the area of archives, scientific research and the edition of sources, which are in the possession of IPN and IICCR

- cooperation within the area of historical education:
- carrying out mutual scientific programs and popularization of its results
- organization of exhibitions, seminars and conferences
- organization of scientific visits, internships and training
- common editing of publications and historical documents
- other educational endeavors

The IPN's delegation had also met with the authorities of the National Council for the Study of the Securitate Archives (Consiliul National pentru Studierea Arhivelor Securitatii - CNSAS).
