The Institute of National Remembrance in Paris, March 23-26, 2010

Following the invitation of the Directorate of the Polish Section of the Saint Germain en Laye International High School the exhibition "The Polish People's Republic - so far, so close ..." is presented in Paris and its vicinity. The exhibition is complemented by classes, conducted by the staff of the Public Education Office and the Public Education Branch Office in Warsaw. The program will consist of classes and lectures for students and methodological workshops for teachers. The classes are attended by several hundred of Polish students from all educational institutions in Paris and its surroundings.

The project is organised by the teachers of Polish schools in France, cooperating with the IPN's Public Education Office in its educational program aimed at Poles abroad.
